14	Defendant.))
15	In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), a detention hearing was
16	held on April 12, 2013. Defendant was present and was represented by counsel. I conclude
17	by a preponderance of the evidence the Defendant is a serious flight risk and the detention
18	of the Defendant pending trial is appropriate.
19	FINDINGS OF FACT
20	I find by a preponderance of the evidence that:
21
2223	Defendant is not a citizen o	f the United States or lawfully admitted for permanent residence.
2425		e charged offense, was in the United States
26	illegally.
27	The defendant has previously been deported or otherwise removed. Defendant has no significant contacts in the United States or in the District
28	of Arizona.	it contacts in the Officer States of the District
20	or ranzona.

П Defendant has no resources in the United States from which he/she might 1 make a bond reasonably calculated to assure his/her future appearance. 2 Defendant has a prior criminal history. 3 Defendant lives/works in Mexico. 4 Defendant is an amnesty applicant but has no substantial ties in Arizona or 5 in the United States and has substantial family ties to Mexico. There is a record of prior failure to appear in court as ordered. 6 Defendant attempted to evade law enforcement contact by fleeing from law 7 enforcement. 8 Defendant is facing a maximum of _____ years imprisonment. 9 The Court incorporates by reference the material findings of the Pretrial Services 10 Agency which were reviewed by the Court at the time of the hearing in this matter, 11 except as noted in the record. 12 CONCLUSIONS OF LAW 13 1. There is a serious risk that Defendant will flee if released from custody, and 14 2. No condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the 15 appearance of Defendant at future court proceedings as required. 16 DIRECTIONS REGARDING DETENTION 17 Defendant is committed to the custody of the United States Attorney General or 18 his/her designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the 19 extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody 20 pending appeal. Defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private 21 consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request 22 of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall 23 deliver Defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in 24 connection with a court proceeding. 25 APPEALS AND THIRD PARTY RELEASE 26 IT IS ORDERED that should a review of this detention order be filed pursuant to 27

18 U.S.C. § 3145, it is defense counsel's responsibility to deliver a copy of the motion for 1 review/reconsideration to Pretrial Services at least one day prior to the hearing set before 2 the assigned District Judge. Pursuant to Rule 59(a), Fed.R.Crim.P. (2010), Defendant 3 shall have fourteen (14) days from the date of service of a copy of this order or after the 4 oral order is stated on the record within which to file specific written objections with the 5 district court. Failure to timely file objections in accordance with Rule 59(a) may waive 6 the right to review. Rule 59(a), Fed.R.Crim.P. 7 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the issue of detention may be reopened at any 8 time before trial upon a finding that information exists that was not known to the movant 9 at the time of the detention hearing and such information has a material bearing on the 10 issue whether there are conditions of release that will reasonably assure the appearance of 11 Defendant as required and/or the safety of any other person or the community. Title 18 12 U.S.C. § 3142(f). 13 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that if a release to a third party is to be considered, 14 it is counsel's responsibility to notify Pretrial Services sufficiently in advance of the 15 hearing to allow Pretrial Services an opportunity to interview and investigate the 16 potential third party custodian. 17 DATED this 15th day of April, 2013. 18 19 20 21
